CANCELLATIONS

Any person whose failure to appear caused the cancellation of a hearing shall pay a two-hour minimum fee to the interpreter.

When a hearing is settled or continued, the person who requested the interpreter must notify Court Administration (337-269-5761) 72 hours prior to the hearing date in order to avoid the two-hour minimum fee.

PROVISION of INTERPRETERS and ASSOCIATED COSTS

1. Criminal Cases
 - a. Each non-English speaking defendant shall be provided with an interpreter at each step of the proceedings. However, the costs of an interpreter may be charged to a defendant who is convicted of a criminal offense (see La. Code Crim. Proc. Art. 887: State v. Lopes, 2001-1383 (La. 12/7/01); 805 So. 2nd 124).
 - b. The court shall provide an interpreter to any non-English speaking person at no cost to such person, whenever the non-English speaking person is a party, or has been subpoenaed, or summoned or has otherwise been compelled to appear in a criminal proceeding. The costs for such interpretation shall be paid and assessed in accordance with local court rules.
2. Domestic Abuse and Juvenile Cases
 - a. Non-English speaking persons in any domestic violence proceeding shall be provided an interpreter at each step of the proceeding and at no cost.
 - b. Non-English speaking persons in a juvenile proceeding provided for in Titles VI, through XII, XIV, and XV of the Louisiana Children's Code shall be provided with an interpreter at each step of the proceedings at no cost to such persons.
 - c. The provided interpreter shall be present at all times when the non-English speaking person is consulting with legal counsel should said legal counsel not be able to communicate with the non-English speaking person.
3. In Forma Pauperis

In the event the Court has approved a pauper's affidavit in any civil case and the person filing said affidavit requires the use of an interpreter, one shall be provided at no cost to said person.
4. Civil Cases

Upon request, each non-English speaking person involved as a party or witness in a civil divorce or custody case shall be provided with a listing of court-approved interpreters, from which he/she may engage an interpreter at his/her own cost. In its discretion, the Court may assess the costs of an interpreter as a court cost in accordance with the law.
